GENERAL INFORMATION	This linear route is a 54km stretch of one of England's oldest main roads, which ran from the heart of London to historic York. Throughout our nation's history the Ermine Street played a vital part for people and their animals, to move to different markets and religious centres. The route is split into 3 sections (18km, 17km & 19km) but you don't have to walk it all or in any particular order, you can reduce the length of section you walk to suit your own ability. Each section finishes close to a bus stop or train station and gives you the option to return to Lincoln or stay in the local area in one of the many villages the route passes through with some pretty impressive traditional country inns, or B&B's. (Accommodation is available in Lincoln, Waddington, Navenby, Byards Leap, Oasby, Welby & Grantham)

ROUTE DESCRIPTION - SECTION 1 (18KM)

From the Tourist Information Centre in Castle Square, head downhill passing Brown's Pie Shop on right. At fork bear left continuing down Steep Hill (sign Steep Hill & City on wall), continue ahead downhill with hand railings on left, then continue down The Strait, passing 2 x green bollards. Continue on pedestrian way to cross 2 roads. Pass under Stonebow Arch and ahead. At black and white fronted building on right (Stokes Café) turn right just before this building to go between the building and shop down steps and along passage. Continue with river on left, pass through narrow passage at the end and continue with river on left. Go under bridge and continue along Brayford Pool, pass Royal William IV on right, continue along the waterside.

Pass marina on left and at Sea Cadets bear right to road, then go left up over bridge and pass University of Lincoln sign on left. Continue over bridge to traffic lights. Continue left (note tank statue on roundabout) head towards Toys R Us keeping it on your right. Cross road for University car park, at next traffic light just before bridge / Ropewalk, turn right to cross road at crossing and head on path with river on left towards Burger King. Cross road to go down side of Burger King with the River Witham on left.

Continue along this riverside path for 2.8km until you reach the A1434 Newark Road and the Plough Public House. Turn left along pavement to cross road at pedestrian crossing over Newark Road and head up Brant Road, when safe cross Brant Road to opposite side and head up Brant Road until you reach Parker Avenue on left. DO NOT go down Parker Avenue but instead take gravel lane at back of houses and continue with hedge on left.

At field proceed along bridle path up hill, take left of 2 forks, at finger post go through gap in hedge and continue uphill, at small fork go right uphill to reach kissing gate. (there are a number of paths that go uphill to reach the Viking Way which runs along the ridge). Proceed along ridge (VW) with hedge on right and fields on left. Continue along this ridge to emerge at Far Lane at metal (Arco) barrier. Turn left up Staples Lane, at T junction turn right, at next junction continue ahead pass Horse & Jockey P.H. on right.

Question 1: What is the name of the house on the right immediately after the pub called?

Pass church on left and 3 Horse Shoe PH, play area (with seat) on right. Crossover main road into Millers Road and then at sign post go ahead on footpath alongside hedge. Pass through kissing gate and follow path past old mill towards Harmston church. Crossover village road and continue ahead across fields to reach the village of Harmston. Turn left along village road.

At crossroads (A607) turn right along tarmac path. At next footpath sign turn right to follow path alongside hedge. At marker post turn left and keeping hedge on left follow broad grassy path. Pass by old Stone archway (house entrance) to reach road in the village of Coleby. Turn Right along village road. Turn left along High Street opposite church.

Pass by The Tempest PH and then crossover road by village green to go ahead on narrow hedged path. At path junction bear right to continue along fenced path. Crossover stile and follow path around edge of field. Follow path along ridge through a number of fields to reach the outskirts of Boothby Graffoe. Turn left through gate at footpath sign. Go diagonally across field to gate in front of house. Through gate and go ahead along village road. At road junction bear right along Main Street.

Continue along Main Street. When road bends left out of village go ahead along track to metal gate and continue on track to pass next metal gate and follow path alongside wood. Follow path through fields and then alongside wire fence/hedge to reach steps. Go down steps and turn left, immediately before Hill Top Cottage turn right along Cat Walk, passing village hall on right, follow round to left then right with the church on your right. At lane turn left continue up to the main road of Navenby Village.

End of section 1 (18km completed)

ROUTE DESCRIPTION - SECTION 2 (17KM)

Turn right in front of Cottage Tea Room and proceed along the High Street passing the Kings Head PH and Lion and Royal PH, then becomes Grantham Road. Pass the Doctors Surgery into the village of Wellingore. At the garage cross over road with care and bear right down Millgate with Diamond Jubilee Garden on right to reach T junction (Marquis of Granby PH on right), turn left into the High Street and turn left again into Sleaford Road, to reach main road Pottergate Road turn right.

When hard surface road swings away left continue ahead along broad track (The Ermine Street). Crossover 2 minor roads to continue on broad track. Crossover busy major road (A17) and drop down embankment to reach a notice board on your left.

Question 2 : What was Byard?

Pass Byards café and B & B on your right and continue ahead. The route now runs parallel to the major road. Follow this track for about 2kms until you reach a very distinct Viking Way sign. Pass through gap in hedge (tall trees on right) and follow restricted byway alongside of field with hedge on right.

At cross tracks turn left away from Viking Way and continue ahead to gap in next hedge. Shortly after passing pipeline gap on right, at next fingerpost, bear diagonally left across field. Continue line across next field, pass through another hedge and head towards 7 mature trees. Track passes to left of trees, then hedge on left to arrive at tarmac road. Cross over to tarmac public by-way and descend gently with views of Ancaster ahead. Wire fence on right, hedge on left and small select housing development on right.

Cross 2 stiles and turn left between conifer hedges to reach lane. Turn right along pavement, just before junction cross to opposite side keeping in same direction. Pass stone bus stop on left .

Question 3: In what year was the bus stop re-erected?
