ROUTE DESCRIPTION

From Wyndham car park head towards road, turn left into gateway into park (see plaque on wall) on exiting gateway at cross paths turn right and see the memorial sculpture commemorating the Machine Gun Corps on your right, ahead to reach the end of the park, turn left and continue approx. 200m to cross the road at the pedestrian crossing immediately after bridge.

Enter onto the Riverside Walk, and continue with the River Witham on your right following this until you reach the footbridge on your right. Turn left

Q1: On milestone marker how far is it to Nottingham?

Pass half way through children's play park, bear right at the footpath sign to reach gap in hedge, go through gate and follow path bearing left to reach top corner, then follow fence line to reach the road.

Go over stile and continue on path with hedge on right, cross stile, bear left round edge of field to stile, cross and straight ahead along Long Street to reach main road.

Q2: Where did the brass plaque come from?

Turn left and carry straight on (there is a 1914/1918 cenotaph remembrance cross in the church yard on your left) following road to Grantham to reach traffic lights at junction with North Parade and Broad Street (look out for Baroness Margaret Thatcher's old home on corner). Turn left into Broad Street. Cross junction into Albion Street by No Entry Signs, follow to the right which becomes Albion Place. Turn left to pedestrian crossing by Dawson's Almshouses. Cross road at crossing and turn left in front of Kings School.

There are three Blue Plaques in and around the walls of the school buildings. So please look out for these. 2 of them commemorate brave soldiers and airmen who were pupils at this school, and one of them (around the rear of the older part of the school) is dedicated to Sir Isaac Newton who was also educated here.

Q3: When was Lance Corporal Joseph Tombs VC awarded his medal?

Turn right into Castlegate and pass St Wulframs Church on right. At this church there is a commemorative cross and dedicated plaques on the church walls with the names of all 313 Grantham men who lost their lives serving their country during World War 1

At the end of Castlegate cross road with care into gardens, (SKDC Customer Service Centre has a Victoria Cross on display during opening hours). This VC was awarded to Company Sgt Major Charles Richard Sharpe who was from nearby Pickworth. He was awarded his medal whilst serving with the 2nd Battalion Lincolnshire Regiment at the Battle of Aubers Ridge in France on the 9th May 1915.

When you reach the fork in the paths, take the riverside route to enter Wyndham Park (This park was named in honour of Captain (The Hon) William Reginald Wyndham who was killed in action at Ypres on 6th Nov 1914. The park was opened in 1924, after Lady Leconfield donated £1000 towards it as a memorial to her son).

Continue ahead back to the car park passing the wonderful memorial pavilion on right.

Welcome back, Lincolnshire Vikings Walking Club hopes you enjoyed the Grantham Machine Gun Corps Armistice Trail
